

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to give clear guidance on what our core values are and what is expected of any employee or contractor of Mason Electrical Engineering Contractors.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees and contractors that work at any site or any place of work operated by Mason Electrical Engineering Contractors.

Aim

Mason Electrical Engineering Contractors aims:

- to promote our core values to all employees and contractors;
- to encourage all employees and contractors to abide by our core values;
- to promptly investigate and take decisive action against any person that breaches this policy

Core Values

Our core values represent who we are and what we consider integral to our operation:

- honesty
- integrity
- punctuality
- respect
- accountability

Honesty

Honesty is an attribute of trustworthiness and is fundamental in any person and is expected of all our employees and contractors. Honesty is the best policy.

Integrity

Personal integrity is expected of all our employees and contractors. It embodies honesty and reflects on your morals. Morals are about doing what is right regardless of your feelings or personal preferences.

Punctuality

Punctuality shows discipline and respect for others. It shows professionalism for the individual and our company. Someone that shows a pattern of being late does not demonstrate self-motivation and could give our company a bad reputation.

Respect

Having respect for others in the workplace and our customers is paramount. Respect includes treating others the same way you would like to be treated.

Accountability

Taking ownership of making a mistake, or if in a supervisory/management position taking ownership of an employee's mistake or conduct shows great leadership and professionalism and is highly regarded. Mason Electrical Engineering Contractors expects all employees and contractors to lead by example and take accountability of their actions.
